

House Resolution No. 416

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives realize that the rank of Eagle Scout is a performance-based achievement, the proud standards of which have been well maintained for many years; and

Whereas, Terry McCormack of Steedman, Missouri, will receive the prestigious rank of Eagle Scout during a Court of Honor ceremony to be held on March 2, 2003, at the South Callaway R-II High School theater in Mokane; and

Whereas, Terry, a member of Boy Scout Troop 50 and Varsity Team 50, successfully fulfilled the requirements to receive Scouting's highest rank by completing his Eagle project which involved building and installing benches at the South Callaway R-II school track; and

Whereas, during his ten years in Scouting, Terry mastered several challenging and diverse skills to earn the Arrow of Light, twenty-nine merit badges, CPR certification, the Den Chief Service Award, and Ordeal membership in the Order of the Arrow; and

Whereas, Terry demonstrated his capability and willingness to exert leadership by fulfilling the duties and responsibilities of Patrol Leader, Den Chief, Program Manager, Team Captain, Co-Captain, and Order of the Arrow Chapter Ceremony Vice Chief; and

Whereas, the son of Eugene and Carolyn McCormack, Terry developed immense personal growth and fitness by participating in the many assorted activities the Boy Scouts offers, some of which include completing Den Chief and Junior Leader Training, taking part in Youth Protection, and going on a High Adventure trip to the Boundary Waters Canoe Area Wilderness; and

Whereas, Terry's attainment of the Eagle rank will be recognized at all levels of our society as being a great achievement that required considerable dedication and effort:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations to Terry McCormack for the steadfast determination he displayed in his pursuit to attain the rank of Eagle and in wishing him continued success in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Eagle Scout Terry McCormack.
